any realist metaphysics must include an integrated account of the transcendentals and the analogy of being for an adequate metaphysics must be about everything and all things share in some key metaphysical characteristic being unity truth goodness and beauty however they do not share in them in exactly the same way therefore there is need to explain the transcendental characteristics in an analogical way by using the phrase transcendental analogies reason revelation and metaphysics claims that there are analogies of unity truth goodness and beauty which are related to but irreducible to the analogy of being as this book is a systematic study of the topic theoretical reason has primacy in the project and metaphysics is given pride of place but reason is practical and aesthetic as well that is our consciences urge us to seek what is good and we are delighted by what is beautiful although goodness and beauty are not reducible to truth they must be included in any adequate metaphysical account for metaphysics looks to explain everything although metaphysics is traditionally thought to be a philosophical project involving ontology and natural theology montague brown argues that an adequate metaphysics must ultimately be theological including within its scope the truths of revelation philosophical reason s examination of the transcendental analogies raises questions that it cannot answer we experience a world of many beings truths goods and
